I know that it is my job to make sure that everything goes well for the tourists and I feel I work hard for the company. I cannot be blamed for last week. I met the group at the airport and took them to the coach. The coach driver was a bit annoyed because the flight was late. But it wasn't far to the hotel and everyone was looking forward to their dinner. We hadn't used the Hotel Riviera before but our normal one had a meeting in it so was fully booked. When I announced our arrival at the reception desk, they said they were full. I had booked rooms for the group but the manager said they were cancelled by phone a few days before. He insisted that he recognized my voice and that I had made the phone call. We had a bit of an argument but they obviously didn't have enough rooms. In the end the manager phoned other hotels in the town and found rooms for everyone but in four different hotels. By this time the coach had gone so we had to get taxis and some of the tourists started to get very angry with me. I still don't know who made that phone call but it definitely wasn't me.

6. Who was the text written to?

- A. One of the tourists.
- B. The writer's employer.
- C. The hotel manager.
- D. The coach company.

7. Why weren't any rooms available at the Hotel Riviera?

- A. A meeting was taking place there.
- B. There were more people in the group than expected.
- C. Someone had forgotten to book them.
- D. Someone had said they were not needed.

8. What happened in the end?

- A. The tourists got angry with the hotel manager.
- B. The tourists couldn't stay together.
- C. The writer found other hotels with rooms.
- D. The writer called the coach driver back.

9. Which of the following diaries was written by one of the tourists?

A Someone had made a mistake with our hotel booking and the hotel had given our rooms to other people.

B The hotel we were taken to wasn't good enough so we asked to change to a different one.

C We got to the airport and had to wait for the coach. So it was really late when we got to the hotel.

D The coach driver took us to the wrong hotel and they knew nothing about us.

Pet owners are being encouraged to take their animals to work, a move that scientists say can be good for productivity, workplace morale, and the well being of animals.

A study found that 25% of Australian women would like to keep an office pet. Sue Chaseling of Petcare Information Service said the practice of keeping office pets was good both for the people and the pets. "On the pets' side, they are not left on their own and won't feel lonely and unhappy," she said. A study of major US companies showed that 73% found office pets beneficial, while 27% experienced a drop in the number of absent employees.

Xarni Riggs has two cats walking around her Global Hair Salon in Paddington. "My customers love them. They are their favorites," she said. "They are not troublesome. They know when to go and have a sleep in the sun."

Little Blackhas spent nearly all his two years "working" at Punch Gallery in Balmain. Owner Iain Powell said he had had cats at the gallery for 15 years. "Little Black often lies in the shop window and people walking past tap on the glass,”he said.

Ms Chaseling said cats were popular in service industries because they made possible a point of conversation. But she said owners had to make sure both their coworkers and the cats were comfortable.

10. The percentage of American companies that are in favor of keeping office pets is _____ .

- A. 73% B. 27% C. 25% D. 15%

11. We know from the text that “Little Black” _____ .

- A. works in the Global Hair Salon
B. often greets the passers-by
C. likes to sleep in the sun
D. is a two-year-old cat

12. The best title for this text would be _____ .

- A. Pets Help Attract Customers
B. Your Favorite Office Pets
C. Pets Join the Workforce
D. Busy Life for Pets

C

Dear Hamilton,

We are fortunate that in such a large, high-pressure office we all get along so well. You are one of the people who keep the social temperature at such a comfortable setting. I don’t know anyone in the office who is better liked than you.

You can perhaps help with this. The collection of contributions towards gifts for employees’ personal-life events is becoming a little troubling. Certainly, the group sending of a gift is reasonable now and then. In the past month, however, there have been collections for two baby shower gifts, one wedding shower gift, , one funeral (葬礼) remembrance, four birthday gifts, and three graduation gifts.

It’s not only the collected-from who are growing uncomfortable (and poor), but the collected-for feel uneasy receiving gifts from people who don’t know them outside the office, who wouldn’t even recognize their graduating children, their marrying daughters and sons, or their dead relatives.

This is basically a kind gesture (and one that people think well of you for), but the practice seems to have become too wide-ranging and feels improper in today's office setting.

Thank you for understanding.

Yours faithfully

Wayne Ferguson
